By PBN Connect

PAWTUCKET - BankNewport celebrated the opening of a new Lending Center in Pawtucket at 24 Newport Avenue with an official ribbon cutting ceremony held on June 27. BankNewport President and CEO, Sandra J. Pattie presided over the ceremony with City of Pawtucket Mayor Donald Grebien, BankNewport Board Chairman Peter Capodilupo, and special guests in attendance.

The Pawtucket Lending Center will provide customers with an expedient borrowing process for a full range of mortgage products, including Equity Builder, Fannie Mae's Home Ready program, Rhode Island Housing first time homeowner programs, and Flagstar FHA.

The Pawtucket office will be staffed with bilingual community lending officers and mortgage loan processors. Customers can meet with a mortgage lending officer and complete their applications on site. Borrowers may receive an initial loan pre-approval while meeting with a mortgage lending officer.

Northern Rhode Island Chamber of Commerce representative, Lesley Palagi; BankNewport Assistant Vice President/Community Lending Officer, Dariel Blanco; City of Pawtucket Mayor Donald Grebien; BankNewport President & CEO, Sandra Pattie; BankNewport Board Chairman, Peter Capodilupo; BankNewport Mortgage Processor, Gina Justo; BankNewport Executive Vice President/Director of Consumer Relationships, Mary Leach; BankNewport Assistant Vice President/Community Lending Officer, Mario Monteiro.

"BankNewport has enjoyed a solid reputation of serving our mortgage, consumer and commercial loan customers from Providence County for many years," stated President Pattie. "We look forward to continuing our role as a true community partner and neighbor to all area residents and businesses, offering fast, efficient borrowing opportunities through our new Pawtucket office."

President Pattie added, "BankNewport is a Rhode Island community bank. We've prospered by staying focused on exceptional service and competitive products for generations of families and businesses."
